

Staff Officer's Orientation

Equal Employment Opportunity

EEO

VISION

Premier EEO office in Army providing exceptional service to exceptional customers

MISSION

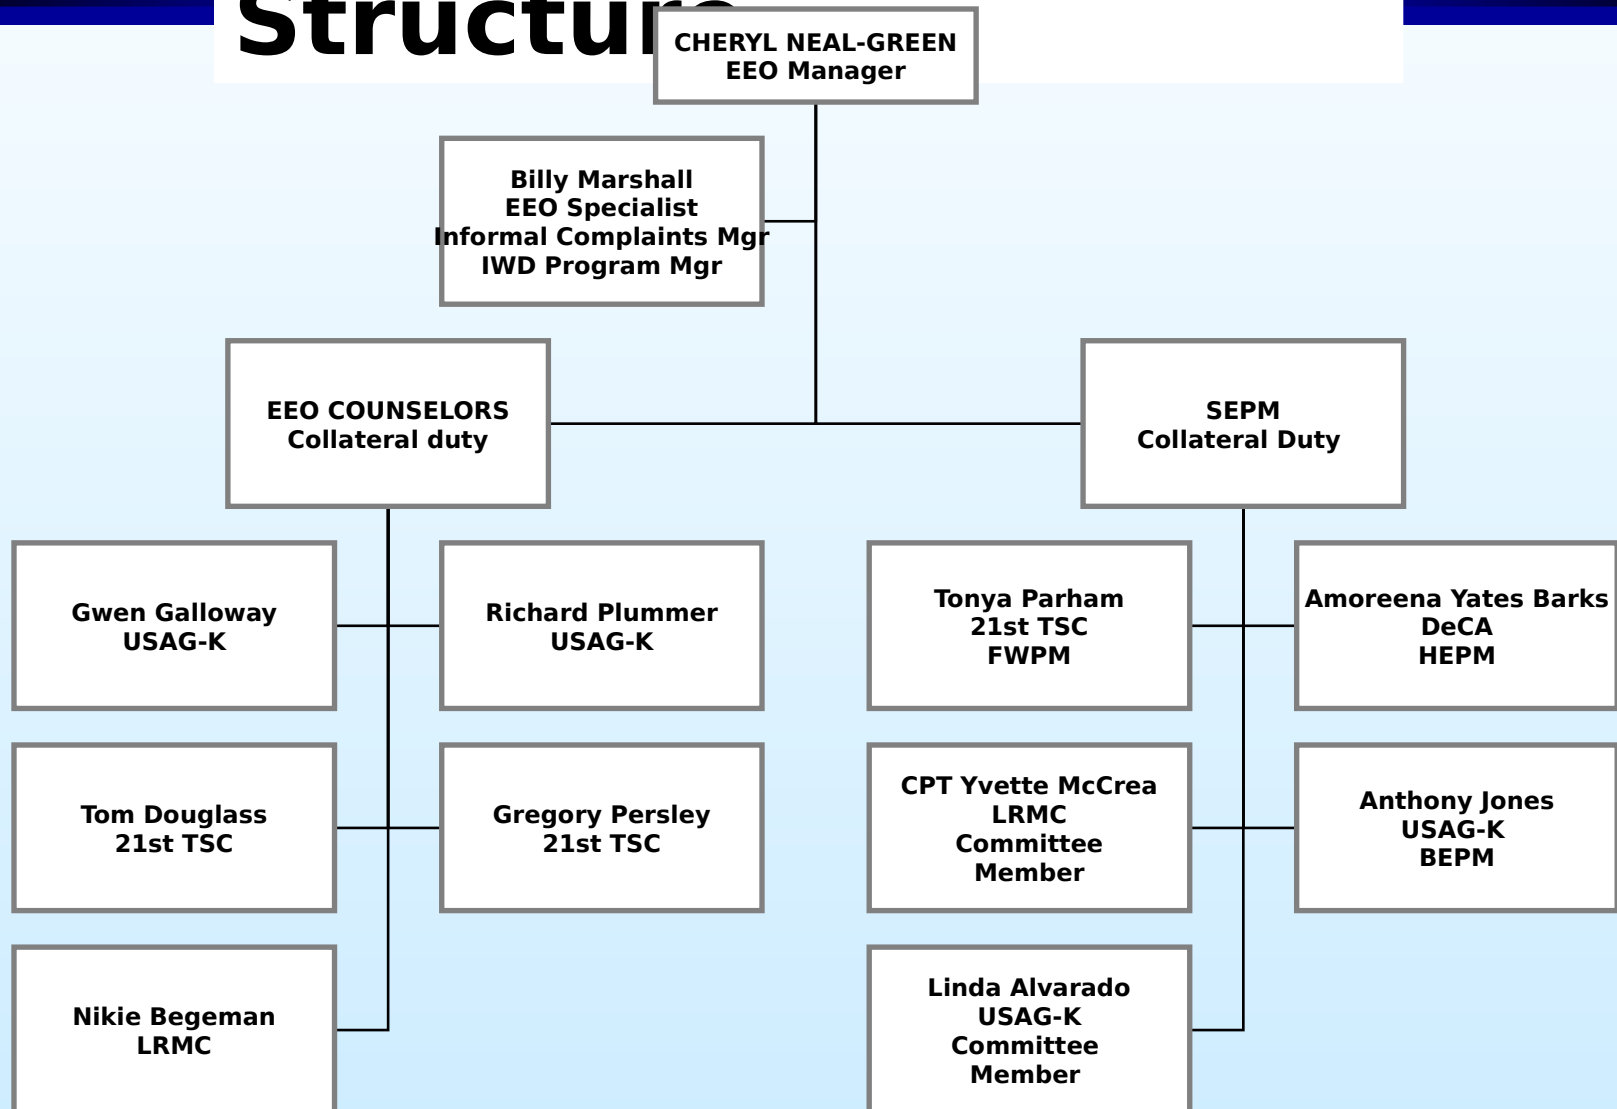

Provide affirmative employment planning, complaints processing, EEO-related training and advice and assistance to the 415th BSB and serviced organizations to assist in creating and sustaining a discrimination free workplace.

Location: Pulaski Barracks, Bldg 2925 (2nd Floor) (Rooms 227/299)

Email: cheryl.nealgreen@us.army.mil ;

billy.marshall@us.army.mil

Organizational Structure

MAJOR RESPONSIBILITIES

EEO COMPLAINT PROCESS

AFFIRMATIVE EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM

TRAINING AND EDUCATION

ADVISORY SERVICES

COMPLIANCE AND PROGRAM EVALUATION SERVICES

MODEL EEO PROGRAM

- ☐ Demonstrated Commitment
- ☐ Making EEO an Integral Part Strategic Mission
- ☐ Ensuring Management and Program Accountability
- ☐ Proactive Prevention
- ☐ Efficiency
- ☐ Responsiveness and Legal Compliance

Three Most Important Things to Remember About the EEO

Honest broker- remaining neutral regarding management and employees

Failure to address EEO concerns can – be costly, reduce productivity and cause mission to suffer

EEO is the Commander's program